Hey, I'm Ophelia!

Welcome to my whimsical world...

Ophelia grew up in Suffolk and now lives in the picturesque Chilterns with her husband and their new baby. When she's not knee-deep in nappies or attempting to stay one step ahead of the housework, she escapes into her colourful illustrated world, brought to life on her iPad and stylus.

She delights in creating joyful scenes and gently eccentric characters that celebrate life's simplest pleasures. Inspired by her Suffolk childhood and a fondness for English country life, her work is full of colour, nostalgia, and a touch of whimsy—just as the name suggests.
